

YSGOL BRO LLIFON

We take your privacy very seriously therefore we urge you to read this policy carefully because it contains important information about:

- Who we are
- What information is collected
- How and why we collect, store and share personal information
- Your rights in relation to your personal information
- How to contact us and supervisory authorities in the event that you have a complaint

Who we are

Ysgol Bro Llifon ('we' or 'us') collect, use and are responsible for certain personal information about you as the 'data controller'. When we do so, we are regulated under the General Data protection Regulations which apply across the European Union (including the United Kingdom) and we are responsible as the 'data controller' of that personal information for the purposes of those laws.

The personal information of pupils we collect and use:

- Personal identifiers and contacts (name, date of birth, gender, address, unique pupils number (UPN), email address, emergency contact details)
- Characteristics (ethnicity, nationality, home language, free school meal eligibility)
- Dinner Money Payments and child's meal pattern
- Safeguarding information (court orders, professional involvement and reports - social Services and child protection, relevant background family information)
- Special educational needs (needs and ranking including 'More able and talented' information)
- Attendance (sessions attended, number and reason of absences)
- Medical and administration (doctors information, allergies, medication and dietary requirements)
- Assessment and attainment (results from statutory and non statutory tests, educational history, expected levels of achievement, annual and term reports)
- Behavioural information (exclusions and any provisions put in place)
- Timetable and classes attended (including musical instrument lessons)
- Permission for school trips and published photographs (including name and date of permission giver)
- Details of person(s) permitted to collect pupil from school

We collect and use pupil data for the following purposes:

- To support pupil learning
- To monitor and report on pupil attainment progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care

- To assess the quality of our Services
- To keep children safe (food allergies, emergency contact details, CCTV images, details of permitted collector)
- To meet statutory requirements for use with data collections

We may use your information for automated decision making, including profiling. This is where we make a decision automatically about you without human intervention

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing pupil information are:

- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject
- Processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person
- Processing is necessary for the purpose of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller

In addition, concerning any special category data

- Processing is necessary for the purpose of carrying out obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject providing for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject
- Processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- Processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes. This shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and safeguard the fundamental rights and interests of the data subject.

The legal obligations for processing pupil information are :

- The Education (school information) (Wales) Regulations 2011
